COUNTRY GIRLS.

Up in the early morning Just at the peep of day, Straining the milk in the dairy,

Turning the cows away --Eweeping the floor in the kitchen, Making the beds up stairs, Washing the breakfast dishes,

Dusting the parlor chairs. Brushing the crumbs from the pantry, Hunting for eggs at the barn-

Cleaning the turnips for dinner, Spinning the stocking yarn-

Spreading the whitening linen Down on the bushes below, Ransacking every meadow

Starching the "fixings" for Sunday. Churning the snowy cream, Rinsing the pails and strainer

Where the red strawberries grow

Down in the running stream-Feeding the geore and turkeys. Making the pumkin pies, Jogging the little one's cradle, Driving away the flice.

Grace in their every motion, Music in every tone, Beauty in form and feature Thousands might covet to own-Cheeks that rival spring roses,

Teeth the whitest of pearls: One of these country maids is worth A score of your city girls.

SOW MILLET.

Do you want to know why? Because it yields more food for man and beast than any other cultivated grain.

Cut for hay, the crop is large and of excellent quallity, and it is said to imports a vigor and elasticity to working cattle that is acquired from no other food. Stock, too, are very fond of the millet hay.

If allowed to ripon its seed, it is an excellent grain for animals, possessing as much nutriment as Indian corn, but not its fattening property. In Europe it it is often ground for bread, and where people are ac-

No attempt should ever be made to secure both seed and hay from the same field. Plant one field for seed and one for

A good crop will yield at least five tons of hay.

For seed the upper parts of the head must be ripe before it is cut.

There is one advantage in growing millet that ought to commend it to all farmers-it flourishes well in all seasons. Farmers who once commence the cultivation of millet seldom over abandon it.

Let the Afflicted Read and Ponder! Medicines containing places or inquories, like the boastestage arials, graftler many large bottles to produce the slightest change in health. The Fonest Wine is altogether a different article. It contains no syrups to give it consistency, but acquires its excellent flavor and powerful medicinal properties from the vegentable plants of which it is componed. The Fonest Wine combines the virtues of the Wild Cherry, Dandelion, Vellow Hock, and Sarsuparilla:

with other valuable plants whose properties are still more effective.

Its high concentration renders it one of the most efficient medicines now in use. Sometimes less than a single bottle restores the lingering patient from weakness, debility, and sickness, to strong and vigorous health. CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, No. 120, Arch St., 1 door below Sixth, Philada.

TESTIMONY FROM OHIO.

John Hoffman, Jeromesville, Ohio, May 30th, 1833 said: "I write to state for your satisfaction, and also for that of others, that your German Bitters is what you recommend it to be, a highly valuable medicine, which I know from having used it in my own family to my, entire satisfaction. All who have used it give the same recommendation."

Strumen A. Mraly, Canton, Ohio. May 11, 1853, says: "Having heard your German Bitters highly recommended from sources in which I placed much confdence, I ordered four bottles from Cleveland. One of them I gave to my daughter who has derived great haneft from it; two of the others I sold immediately, and I would lige you to send me a supply of it to sell."

John Clark, Brunswick, Ohio, May 26, 1854, says:

"Your German Bitters have proved successful in every case that has come to my knowledge, and has opened for itself a great demand."

Are diseases of the mind as well as of the body, are usually brought on by troubles and affliction, and are most common to persons of delicate constitutions and sensitive minds. Low spirits, melancholy, frightful dreams, and fearful anticipations of evil from the slightest causes, generally accompany nervous disorders. The Forest Wine and Pills are an energetic remedy in these conclusions.
